(8)

A copy of the judgment has to be supplied on application to the accused, and in cases tried by the Court of Session, the Court shall forward a copy of its finding and sentence to the District Magte.. This is provided for in secs. 371 & 373 of the Code of Cr. Procedure. Apart from these two instances, several other officers in Madras are and have to be supplied with copies of the judgments of Sessions Courts/ The practice here is, barring the cases mentioned in the Code, to supply copies only on application; and this, the D.J. says, entails extra and responsible work on the copyist establishment attached to his court.. In any case th work is being done.

The point now is as regards the supply of copies to the D.S.P. without his being obliged to apply for them. - A rule exists, which appears to be still in force, under which the Sessions Judge is required to furnish the I.G. of Police with copies of judgments in which the conduct of the police has been commented upon. The I.G. of Police is now the Resdt. who will, presumably, not require a copy as copies are not sent to the Local Govt. in Madras. If this rule is modified so as to make it necessary for the Sessions Judge of the judgment to send a copy or copies to the D.S.P. in all cases, it seems the needs of the D.S.P. will have been met, at the same time it will obviate the necessity for a reference to the Controller of Printing as regards the printing of copies in the ^{Resy.} ~~lax~~ press, and for the introduction of a rule similar to rules 47 & 48 of the Madras Cr. Rules of Practice. B'lore P.O.No.21(e) could then be altered, as desired, to correspond with Madras P.O.No.380(1)-Vol IV. This will be done when the revision of the police orders wholly is taken up.

The diet rate of under-trial prisoners was sanctioned at 2 annas per meal.
They are allowed two meals a day.

No distinction seems to have been made between European and Indian under-trial prisoners.

The Supd., Central Jail, Bangalore, states that after detailed calculation, the dietary charges for a European under-trial prisoner come to 7as. 6 pice per day.

But the District Magistrate recommends that that 1 Rupee per day may be sanctioned.

This seems to be rather excessive.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith a copy of Bangalore Police Order No. 21 (e) and Madras Police order Vol. IV article 380,
I have the honour to state that copies of judgments in all police cases tried by the Court of Sessions are not now forwarded to me here, as soon as judgments are given. In all such cases ~~where~~ I wish to peruse the judgments of Sessions Court, I have to apply for the same and get them. This involves unnecessary time and correspondence.

In Madras, the procedure is as follows:- 4 copies of judgments are being received in every case disposed of by the Sessions Judge, of which one will be forwarded to the Deputy Inspector General of Police with remarks, if any, and one will be filed with the case-Diary file and two will be kept as spare copies, one of which will be sent round to the Circle Inspectors of Police concerned and the other sent to any officer who -- requires the same for perusing the previous convictions, whenever occasion arises.

I would request that a similar procedure may be brought into existence here also, and necessary orders ^{may kindly be} issued on the subject.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

S. 195 With reference to your Memo No. 1516 dated 15-2-1924

SE 194 forwarding a copy of letter No. 191/G dated 7-2-24 from the District Superintendent of Police, C & M Station, Bangalore for my remarks, I have the honour to state that I have absolutely no objection to furnish the District Superintendent of Police with as many copies as he may require of the judgment in every Sessions Case, provided they are caused to be printed.

2. The Superintendent of Police has quite rightly pointed out the practice in the Madras Presidency according to which four copies of judgment in every Sessions Case are sent by the Session Court to the District Superintendent of Police. This is done, however, not in pursuance of Madras Police Order Vol. 4, Article 380, but under the Rules framed by the Government of Madras for printing Sessions judgments - G.O. No. 1448, Judicial dated 26-10-1909 and G.O. No. 918, Judicial dated 16-6-1910 and republished as Rules 47 & 48 at pages 11 and 12 in the Criminal Rules of Practice 1910 (Madras Law Journal Office, 1920 Edition). According to Rule 48, not only the District Superintendent of Police, but also the District Magistrate, the Committing Magistrate and many other Officers are entitled to copies of judgment free of charge. The usual practice is to print 40 copies of the judgment in every Sessions Case and to distribute them as per Rule 48.

3. Since there is no Typist attached to this Court it is not possible to supply 4 typed copies of the judgment in every Sessions Case to the District Superintendent of Police. It is judgments.

Sir,

in 2/1924
In accordance with the practice in the Madras Presy. -vide ^{rule} 47 & 48 of the Madras Criminal Rules of Practice (copy enclosed)- it is proposed to print copies judgments of
of the Sessions Court, C. & M. Station, B'lore, for distribution, ¹ free of charge,
to the accused and to certain other officers in the Station, including the Dist. Magte. and the D.S.P..

2 At present type-written copies of such judgments are being supplied, but the Dist. and Sessions Judge, C. & M.
Station, has represented that this entails additional and responsible work on the ~~xxx~~ temporary copyist establishment attached to his court for which they are un-remunerated, and that it is not possible to type immediately after the judgment is ~~pronounced~~ pronounced several copies of the judgment for distribution

3. A statement of the number of sessions

At the same time I should like to point out that copies of judgments in Sessions Cases are being furnished not only to the District Superintendent of Police, but also to the District Magistrate and other officers whenever they send a requisition, sometimes even at the risk of causing delay in granting copies in Civil Cases to suitors. The whole work is now being done by the temporary copyist establishment who are not allowed any extra remuneration for this additional and responsible work thrown --- upon them. If they are to be called upon to type immediately after the judgment is pronounced several copies of judgment - for distribution, I am afraid the entire work of the Copyist establishment will be dislocated, and cause serious hardship to the civil litigants.

4. Under these circumstances, I beg to suggest that the Hon'ble the Resident may be pleased to adopt the Madras Practice and sanction the printing at the Residency Press of as many copies of judgments as may be required in all Sessions cases, free of cost, the paper for the same being supplied by the Press.

5. If this proposal meets with the approval of the Hon'ble the Resident, I would suggest that orders may be passed on the lines of Rules 47 and 48 of the Madras Criminal Rules of Practice, since Bangalore Police Order No.21 (e) does not contemplate the Sessions Court of its own accord forwarding to the District Superintendent of Police copies of judgment in all Police cases tried by it.

No. 4295.

Dated Bangalore, 28th Nov 1954.

The Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore is pleased to issue the following instructions with regard to the printing of Sessions Court judgments and the distribution of copies thereof:

(1) The District and Sessions Judge, Civil and Military - Station of Bangalore, shall print his Sessions judgments at the Residency Press, Bangalore. A list of witnesses examined by the prosecution or the defence or by the Court and of exhibits and material objects shall be printed at the end of all Sessions judgments.

(2) The District and Sessions Judge shall distribute copies of the judgments as follows, a sufficient number of copies - being printed for the purpose of each case.

- (i) 3 copies to the District Magistrate for his office and the District Magistrate.
- (ii) 3 copies to the District Superintendent of Police for himself and his subordination.
- (iii) 4 copies to the Resident's Court.
- (iv) 1 copy for each accused person with reference to Section 371, Criminal Procedure Code.
- (v) 1 copy (for each prisoner) to the Superintendent of the Central Jail, Bangalore when such prisoner is sentenced to imprisonment for being filed with -- warrant of commitment or used for purposes of -- manufacturing Government, if required.
- (vi) 2 copies (for each prisoner) to the Superintendent of the Central Jail in cases when such prisoner is -- sentenced to death to prevent delay in the transmission to Government of petitions for mercy.
- (vii) In cases other than those mentioned in sub-heads (v) and (vi), one copy shall be furnished ~~in~~ to each person convicted of an offence on his requisition, in order to afford facilities for manufacturing Government to exercise its powers under Chapter L.I. of the Code of Criminal Procedure, in addition to the copy required by Section 371.
- (viii) 1 copy to the Public Prosecutor.
- (ix) 2 copies to be filed with the records.

The copies referred to in sub-heads (i) to (viii) inclusive shall be supplied free of charge.

When printed copies can be spared, a copy may be supplied to a person not entitled by any law or order to receive a copy free of cost, on payment of a fee of 2 annas per every 170 words or fraction of 170 words contained in it.

All such payments shall be in cash.

Sir,

(through the District Magistrate, C & M Stn. Bangalore)

I wish to suggest the following alteration in the uniform of constables in the Police Force:-

That shoulder straps be abolished and that the Division letter and general number be worn on the right breast.

Reasons.

1. A constable's shoulder straps never lie flat and always look untidy.
2. The Division letter and general number take up too much room on the shoulder strap and the consequence is that a Reserve constable cannot carry his rifle comfortably at the slope.
3. Economy. The innovation will result in a saving of two buttons, one Division letter, one set of general service numbers and two shoulder straps per man.
4. The letter and number will be more plainly visible on the breast than on the shoulder.

If my proposition is sanctioned, I request that early orders may be passed so that the next issue of uniform may be made --

N. Dis 3206/24 accordingly.

Sir,

Dietary charges- European and Anglo-Indian under-trial
prisoners.

I enclose a copy of letter No. 609/A dated 29-7-24 from the Dist. Supdt. of Police on the above subject. The dietary charges for a European under-trial prisoner in the Central Jail come to Rs. 0-7-6 per day (vide copy of letter No. 1296F dated 20-8-24 from the Superintendent of the Jail) but the Dist. Supdt. of Police recommends Rs. 1-8-0 per day for the reason that feeding in the jail is done by contract and that one cannot obtain food at the Jail rate nor in the minute quantities shown in the Jail Superintendent's letter. I recommend Re: 1/- per day and request that it may be sanctioned: if found insufficient, it may be increased later.
